ABSTRACT

This 10-item annotated bibliography presents U.S. government documents suitable for use in preparation for a high school debate on the resolution that the federal government should establish a program to substantially reduce juvenile crime in the United States. Items in the annotated bibliography address correctional philosophy, community response to drugs and crime, crime prevention, criminal justice statistics, dropout prevention, and existing laws on violent crime. The bibliography also provides the stock number, price and extensive ordering information for each publication. Items in the bibliography were published between 1988 and 1995. (RS)
